Planned itinerary. Distances and times are approximate; final campsites, timings and experiences confirmed in your Roadbook.

THE ROUTE

In at Łagów, out from Wrocław — nine stops, never more than a morning's drive, bar one.

Schematic map, not to scale. Orange dots: Malbork Castle (on the way) and Wolf's Lair (optional).

The rhythm: 8 driving days, averaging about 136 miles, and 13 days with no motorhome driving at all. We stay 2–4 nights at most stops, including 4 nights in the mountains, so you unpack properly.

The one long day: Warsaw → Pieniny, ≈245 miles (395 km), almost all expressway. Early start, planned group coffee stop, arrive mid-afternoon.

#	Stop	Nights	Dates (arrive – depart)
1	Łagów	1	Sat 15 May – Sun 16 May

23

Sun 6 Jun

Do widzenia, Poland

Tour ends in Wrocław around midday

A last breakfast and goodbye coffee together in Wrocław. The tour ends around midday — and you head home with a new set of friends. Wrocław is on the A4, the direct motorway west via Dresden.

Overnight: — (own arrangements) • Included: Farewell coffee

From the Channel to Łagów — and home from Wrocław

The tour starts in Łagów, just inside Poland about 90 miles east of Berlin, and finishes in Wrocław, right on the A4 motorway west — so you never drive the same road twice. Travel out at your own pace; we're happy to suggest stopovers.

Route	Miles	Km	Suggested
Dover/Folkestone → Calais → Belgium → Germany (A2) → Berlin ring → Łagów	≈715	≈1,150	3 days (≈240 mi/day)
Harwich → Hook of Holland (overnight ferry) → Germany → Łagów	≈522	≈840	2 days
Home: Wrocław → Dresden → Frankfurt / Cologne → Calais	≈777	≈1,250	3 days (≈260 mi/day)

Suggested timetable (via Calais)

- Wed 12 May — cross the Channel; overnight Belgium / Aachen area (≈200 mi)
- Thu 13 May — overnight Hannover / Magdeburg area (≈260 mi)
- Fri 14 May — overnight near Berlin or in Łagów (≈180–255 mi)
- Sat 15 May — tour begins in Łagów
- Sun 6 June — tour ends at midday in Wrocław; home around 9–10 June

Total mileage

Calais → Łagów	≈715 mi
The tour itself	≈1,090 mi
Wrocław → Calais	≈777 mi
Calais to Calais	≈2,582 mi

Plus your UK drive to the port. Fuel guide: at 25 mpg the tour itself uses ≈200 litres; Calais to Calais ≈470 litres.

Book German stopovers early: the Whitsun (Pfingsten) holiday weekend is 15–17 May 2027 and many German campsites set minimum stays. Stellplätze (aires) or a pre-booked night are the easy answer — that's exactly why the tour starts on the Polish side.

Driving in Poland — the essentials

Speed limits (motorhomes up to 3.5 t)

- Built-up areas: 50 km/h (31 mph)
- Outside built-up areas: 90 km/h (56 mph)
- Expressways (S roads): 120 km/h (75 mph)
- Motorways (A roads): 140 km/h (87 mph)

Over 3.5 t: lower limits apply — we'll send details.

Always on

- Dipped headlights 24 hours a day, all year
- Warning triangle, fire extinguisher and first-aid kit recommended
- Zero tolerance for mobile phones; very low drink-drive limit (0.2‰) — effectively none

Tolls

- Up to 3.5 t: some motorway sections are tolled (A1 Toruń-Gdańsk, parts of A2 and A4). Pay at the barrier or via app — your Roadbook marks each one.
- Over 3.5 t: registration with the e-TOLL system is required before entering Poland.

Dates that matter

- Sundays — most shops are closed in Poland (16, 23, 30 May, 6 June). Stock up on Saturdays.
- Thu 27 May — Corpus Christi, public holiday: processions, shops closed. We're in Warsaw with no driving.
- Clean transport zones — Warsaw has one; we check every motorhome's eligibility before departure.
